INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The large number of patents cited in Applicant's Information Disclosure statement have been noted. Since Applicant has cited the references, it is presumed that Applicant is familiar with the teaching of each of these references and has drawn the claims to avoid the teaching of each and everyone of these references or any reasonable combination thereof. Moreover, it is Applicant's responsibility to point out to the examiner any reference which is particularly pertinent to the claimed invention.

Therefore, since it is Applicant's responsibility to draft the claims to avoid the teaching of any known prior art, it is assumed that the claims patentably define over the cited art. Rule 37 CFR 1.56(a) requires that Applicant state; I acknowledge the duty to disclose information of which I am aware which is material to the examination of this application. See MPEP 2004, paragraph 13. This statement does not end with just the citing of the prior art, but includes any passage in the reference(s) which would have a bearing upon the patentability of any claim.

Also, see Penn Yan Boats, Inc. V Sea Lark Boats, Inc., et al 175 USPQ 260, which states;

Applicant has obligation to call most pertinent prior patent to attention of Patent Office in a proper fashion and to attempt to patentably distinguish his claimed invention from disclosure of patent; failure to take these affirmative steps, particular
